SPECIAL REQUEST:

Greater WBL Community Foundation is creating a Leadership Development Program to help identify and develop future leaders in the WBL Business and Non-Profit Community. They would like a representative from our Club to serve on the Advisory Committee for this program. Ryan Steen is chairing the committee and Jerry Kwapik is serving on the committee representing the WBL Chamber of Commerce. Your Rotary Board of Directors feels strongly that our Club should be represented on the committee, as we are recognized as one of the leading service organizations in the community and our presence would be meaningful. If you would like to serve on this committee please contact Bill Foussard, Craig Drake, or Brady Ramsay.

PROGRAM: .John Kenyon presents
Mary Wingfield, Biking Through Europe

Mary Wingfield, mayor of Birchwood, spoke to our club and shared her boat and bicycle trip across Slovenia and Croatia. Mary is an avid bicyclist and beekeeper, and she has been organizing these types of trips since 1995.

Slovenia is a European country along the Adriatic Sea, and is well-known for its beekeeping, beautiful flowers, and scenic countryside views. The second leg of Mary’s trip was by boat and bicycle through the many islands of Croatia in the Adriatic Sea.

Mary’s group rented a boat and bicycles are part of their trip, and explored by sea and on bike path. Mary’s PowerPoint presentation included a large number of beautiful photographs of bee hives, local landmarks, nature, and mountains that she shared.

TWINS SONG

We're gonna win Twins
We're gonna score
We gonna win Twins
Watch that baseball soar.
Knock out a homerun
Shout hip hip hooray.
Cheer for the Minnesota Twins today!
