of White Bear Lake are all going well. Any ticket money is to go back to Pat McFarlane or Ken Baltzer only.

progresses! Connect with Mark to see how you can help.

100 Member Celebration: Thanks to Pam Tschida for organizing a great event.

Club Needs: Volunteers to do invocations and/or writers for the Bulletin. Every weekly meeting needs a volunteer for each of these activities. Many devoted members have done this for years; but a few additional people would be helpful for people who need time off, vacations, etc. You would be scheduled about every 6-8 weeks.
If you can help, contact Marlyce.

PROGRAM: Anne Labovitz

Anne Labovitz is a contemporary artist who lives and works in St. Paul. Anne likes to style herself as a contemporary artist because that way she can do whatever she wants. She is well known for her large-scale public artworks and Exhibitions. Her art uses bright color as a light force and energy to transform spaces and create emotional response from the viewers. Recent public works include 2 glass mosaics and brightly colored Banners at the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport. Her signature Banner at MSP consists of multiple brightly painted 55-foot-long strips of Tyvek suspended from great heights and hung in a series. Anne also prepares artwork for special projects such as promoting voting through the “Turn Up the Turn Out” and her social practice projects, such as “I Love You Institute”, “122 Conversations”, and “6 Sister Cities Project”. Her work is exhibited in major museums and art galleries. Anne, thank you for connecting all of us through art.
