VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY AT THE FOOD SHELF

The team at the Food Shelf is excited to add more volunteer opportunities starting in November and bring some volunteer roles back inside the building! We will be changing our Drive-Thru Food Distribution to a Curbside Pick-Up model on Monday, November 2nd.
We are looking for volunteers and would appreciate you forwarding the information below onto your members who may be looking for volunteer opportunities. While we don't have group volunteering at this time (we are limiting the number of people in our building), we do have lots of great individual volunteer positions.

Many Faces: Discerning Whiteness: The Unacknowledged Barrier

Are you looking for the next step in your Racial Justice journey? This workshop will examine racialized assumptions, expectations, images, values, and beliefs, moving from abstract definition to vivid depiction. We'll work to uncover what whiteness and white privilege look like in ourselves, local settings, our communities and workplaces. Nov. 4 &
Nov. 11, 6:00--8:00 PM. $30 per household. Sponsored by WBL School District. Regis-

*This nonprofit is committed with compassionate hearts to minister to families affected by the incarceration of a loved one. The mission centers on working with people from different cultures and beliefs - enabling them, together with their faithful staff and volunteers, to address issues facing fathers, mothers, and children in a variety of situations.

*We saw an impressive KARE 11 piece on them. The mentoring program for youth is a foundation element impacting lives. Group mentoring activities present development of social and life skills.
